OWL AT HOME

Based on the illustrated children's book by Arnold Lobel
Adapted for the stage by Rina Vergano and Theatr lolo

Writer: Rina Vergano, Director: Lee Lyford
Performer: George Williams

Age Guidance: Children aged 5 -11 years
and their adults

Owl lives alone in a cosy little home in a hollow tree in the woods. With no one to talk to, Owl sings to himself and looks for ways to pass the time. He wonders about things a lot. What will happen if he invites winter into his home? And can he be in two places at once?

As his imagination runs away with him, ordinary objects begin to take on a life of their own and Owl finds an unexpected friend who's willing to follow him to the ends of the earth... whether he likes it or not!

An enchanting tale with music, Owl at Home is a story about an owl living in isolation and gives young audiences an opportunity to explore the ups and downs of a life lived alone.

@theatriolo

Theatr Iolo's vision is to have a society in which all children can feel empowered and inspired. We strive to do this by enriching the lives of children through memorable experiences that challenge the mind and stir the imagination.

Theatr Iolo has been at the forefront of creating theatre for children in Wales for over thirty-five years.

We are passionate about nurturing and igniting the imagination and creativity of young minds, to help children make sense of the world around them and to find their place within it.

We work with the best artists, writers and creatives, to create memorable and bold live theatre, workshops and activities in both English and Welsh.

Our work for babies, children and teenagers is toured across Wales, the UK and internationally.

*Thank you for the show
Mr Owl, it was amazing.
I liked it because it was very funny in parts and calming in others. I hope you and the moon will be friends forever.*
